Sri D.A. Sreeramulu the president of the Association told that due to the co-operation of staff and other members of the Association the event has been successful.

Birds can fly faster and higher when there are full of feather. Like that more members are important in the Association so that it can do wonders. The point was put forth by Sri S. Venkatesh Babu for increasing the Membership.

Sri S. Venkatesh Babu invited Sri S. Mahesh Rao and requested him to give a presentation on the prospects on Trade and Hallmarking. Sri S. Mahesh Rao told the Hallmarking is going to be introduced mandatory from January 2008. To promote business. Consumer always wants quality.

Sri Vinod Hayagriv told that Jewellery business is shrinking down. That means the profit is shrinking. After five years it will shrink more if the quality of the product is not maintained. Price war is a part and parcel of business. Our Association is the oldest Association established in the year of 1941. Bangalore is not only a software centre but also a place of Jewellery trade. Profitability depends on business. Trade depends on debt also. In the world, big industries depend on debt. By debt we can improve trade. Retail business is more profitable. Marketing is more important to promote trade. Now a days we are having T.V. Media etc., to advertise our products.

Sri P.V. Mahesh, the Hon. Secretary of the Association told that the Association is having more than 84 lakhs in various banks by way of deposits. He told that the interest what the Assn., is getting is very meager. Members suggested that funds could be invested in property and get more revenue from it. He told all most all Associations are having their own Co-operative banks. But the Association is not having own Co-operative bank. The Association wants to open Co-operative bank and help the traders.

Sri D.V Ramesh said about the Tech-Park. He told that Govt., allotted some Land for Jewellers Park to promote the Jewellery Trade and support the artists of the Jewellery designs, Government wants to open park.

Sri G.V. Sreedhar spoke about the police matters. He told some police people are coming to Jewellers shops and harassing them. Fifteen days back some police people came and threatened the Jewellers that they have bought some theft Jewellery and compelled them to return and collected some jewellery. He told that jewellers are not having the required unity. We should not be afraid of police people. But face such situations bravely and be strong by submitting memoranda to the higher police authorities with great daringness direness we have to protect ourselves.

Regarding General holidays discussions were held. Sri. B.H. Ramachandra said members may close their shops on general holidays if they want. He told General Holidays should not be closed compulsorily if those are business days. This was unanimously approved.

Regarding Membership drive Sri. S. Venkatesh Babu told that fifteen days back he received one requisition letter signed by nearly seventy non members that they want to become members of the association provided they get some concession in membership. (reduction of fee). Sri B.H. Ramachandra said the request was not reasonable. Other Members also expressed that concession cannot be given. Hence the proposal was rejected.

Under other subjects.

Sri V.M. Sreeram Setty spoke regarding the Chickpet building and asked why the Association has given the building to other traders for rent when there are so many jewellers. He was clarified by Sr. G.V. Sreedhar by saying that no jewellers came forward to take the premises for rent on conditions said by the Association. We were forced to give it to an outsider. He assured good returns and revenue to the Association. It was given for two years lease with satisfactory rent and advance. It was made clear to him that any subject requiring discussion should be submitted to the Association in writing at least 7 (Seven) days before the Annual General Body Meeting.

To save time. Prolonged discussion will disturb the mind set of every one during the Meeting.

It was also felt necessary to stick to the AGENDA.

Sri D.A. Sreeramulu the President of the Association praised the staff members and distributed gifts to them.

Sri G.V. Sreedhar thanked the members for attending the Annual General Body Meeting in large numbers.

The A.G.M. concluded with the NATIONAL ANTHEM.
